

HAVE YOU SEEN ANY INDIAN (Common) MYNAS?

Name..... Telephone.....
Address..... Email.....
Today's date.....

← Introduced Indian (Common) Myna

1. Date of sighting

If you're not sure of the date, how long ago was it?

Week [] Fortnight [] Month [] 2 months [] More than 2 months []

2. How many birds were seen?

3. In what location were the birds seen? (property address; area location; name of park; name of feature; etc)

Address:

4. In what situation were the birds seen? (eg: on the ground; in a tree; on a fence; flying; roosting; nesting; etc)

5. Do you know where the birds may be ...

* nesting? No [] Yes [] If yes, where? (eg: tree hollow; nest box)

* roosting overnight? No [] Yes [] If yes, where? (eg: tree; roof)

6. Do you see them regularly? No [] Yes [] If yes, how often?

Daily [] Every other day [] Weekly [] Occasionally [] Whenever I'm in the area []

7. When you see them, what are they mostly doing?

Nesting [] Flying [] Feeding (naturally) [] Feeding (hand fed in backyard) []

Attacking other animals [] Collecting nesting material [] Other [] Specify.....

8. How long have you known them to be in that area?

< 1 month [] 1-3 months [] 3-6 months [] 6-12 months []

1-2 years [] > 2years [] Don't know []

9. Do you think the number of Myna birds in the area has been increasing/decreasing/staying the same?

Increasing [] Decreasing [] Staying the same [] Don't know []

10. Comments:.....

Send your observations to:

Jennifer Davis
Senior Extension Officer – Wildlife
Redland Shire Council
IndigiScapes Centre
PO Box 21
Cleveland QLD 4163

Noisy Miner
(native species)

This bird, known also as a Mickey bird, is often confused with the Indian Myna.

It is a native bird and is not included in this survey.